Ignite	"I Wandered Lonely is A Cloud" is a classic example of a lyric poem. A Lyric Poem expresses the speaker's emotions or thoughts, just like the songs of today. Just like songs, lyric poems always have a musical quality, or a specific melody which makes it easy to set them to music. Lyric poetry comes from the ancient Greek word lyre, which refers to the instrument that often accompanied the reading of the poems in the Ancient world. Lyric poetry, for the most part, is short and written from the first person point of view. To speak from a first person point of view, the poet takes on a dramatic character--persona, who is the speaker of the poem. Task 2. Media Viewing. Watch the video about the pleasure of poetic pattern using the provided link. Take note of the essential points. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=URuMb15CWJs	12 mins

I Wandered Lonely as a Cloud

By William Wordsworth

SIMILE IS ALSO PRESENT

I wandered lonely as a cloud
That floats on high o'er vales and hills,
When all at once I saw a crowd,
A host, of golden daffodils;
Beside the lake, beneath the trees,
Fluttering and dancing in the breeze.

RHYME SCHEME: ABABCC
IAMB IS PRESENT

PERSONIFICATION IS PRESENT

Continuous as the stars that shine
And twinkle on the milky way,
They stretched in never-ending line
Along the margin of a bay:
Ten thousand saw I at a glance,
Tossing their heads in sprightly dance.

SIMILE AND PERSONIFICATION

The waves beside them danced; but they
Out-did the sparkling waves in glee:
A poet could not but be gay,
In such a jocund company:
I gazed—and gazed—but little thought
What wealth the show to me had brought:

EMPHASIS ON HAPPINESS

For oft, when on my couch I lie
In vacant or in pensive mood,
They flash upon that inward eye
Which is the bliss of solitude;
And then my heart with pleasure fills,
And dances with the daffodils.

1. What does the persona compare himself to? Why?

2. What makes the poem lyrical?

Knot 	The good memory of the daffodils pushed the loneliness out of the speaker's head. It served as a celebration of solitude.	2 mins
